PHOENIX – Voice America Talk Radio Network, Internet broadcast pioneer, producing and syndicating online audio and video, today announced that Louise A. Cohen, will be hosting a new radio show for their VoiceAmerica Variety Channel (<http://www.voiceamericavariety.com>) called Changing Obstacles into New Possibilities starting on March 20th

The show will be an exciting format of interviewing guests, answering calls from listeners and sharing her practical and professional wisdom from her practice as a Life and Professional Success Coach and Psychotherapist.

Louise will also be talking about ideas from her latest book, Changing Obstacles into New Possibilities, Strategies for Achieving Life Success and Satisfaction.

Louise says, “I have a passion to remind everyone of their innate abilities and strengths, ‘their treasures within,’ that can help them overcome their challenges to create a future of hope and possibilities.”

Louise’s ideas come from a wonderful mosaic of life and professional experiences starting with an exciting fashion career in New York. Her own challenges inspired her to return to graduate school, with the goal to become a licensed psychotherapist. She enjoyed creative expression as a jazz vocalist, and inspiration from a worldwide service organization dedicated to world peace and harmony. Along with her work as a life & professional success coach, she continues to work as a psychotherapist, speaker and author.
