

Louise Cohen

POSITIVE ATTITUDE COACH

CHANGING OBSTACLES INTO NEW POSSIBILITIES

Louise Cohen is a speaker who combines professional and life experience with humor and down-to earth strategies for success. She gets her audiences to "think outside the box" to gain power in achieving their professional and life goals without giving up their values and respect for self and others. Louise enjoyed an exciting career in the Fashion Industries of New York City. Experiencing changes in values and goals, she returned to college at night, eventually becoming a licensed psychotherapist. Louise also was an Internet radio host for Voice America Variety (You can hear her shows on her Media page at www.PositiveAttitudeCoaching.com).

Louise enjoys creative expression as a jazz vocalist, travels worldwide, and offers service with a global organization dedicated to higher human potential. She continues her work as a Speaker, Author, Psychotherapist, and Positive Psychology Life and Professional Coach.

Louise's Most Popular Topics include:

What others are saying...

"Louise Cohen is a forceful and dynamic speaker with a gentle touch. She makes the most frustrating and complicated problems dissolve because she applies her unique professional and personal life experiences to show us that life's difficulties can be transformed to new successes."

Phyllis Kepler, Chicago, IL,
Speaker, Author/ Reporter: Articles in the New York Times, National Observer, Chicago Tribune and others.

"Louise was so engaging and educational. We were so surprised the hour went so fast. She even spent time talking to our audience before her presentation which I felt was outstanding."

Linda C. Vice Pres, Golden Corridor
Chapter of the International Assoc. of Administrative Professionals.

We were dealing with challenges that seemed beyond our control, tight budgets, low morale, etc. Louise, a keynote speakers at our conference, gave us the inspiration and strategies to create new success with our own power and strengths.
